Almighty and Most Merciful God: We come to you with what should be a deep source of our unworthiness and guilt. Yet, we must confess that we often take our transgressions lightly, and easily excuse our faults. We fail to take seriously the depth of our own lostness apart from you. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, who takes our sins- - yes, our sins- - upon himself, have mercy on us. Purify us with your Holy Spirit from all that would mar our souls, and make us able and willing to serve you in newness of life, to the Glory of your Holy Name, through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Amen.

How can I Keep from Singing?

My life flows on in endless song
Above earth's lamentations
I hear the real, though far off hymn
That hails a new creation.

Above the tumult and the strife,
I hear it's music ringing;
It sounds an echo in my soul,
How can I keep from singing?

What though the tempest loudly roars, I hear the truth, it liveth,
What though the darkness 'round me close,
Songs in the night it giveth.

No storm can shake my inmost calm
While to that rock I'm clinging,
Since love is Lord of Heaven and Earth,
How can I keep from singing?

When tyrants tremble, sick with fear,
And hear their death knell ringing,
When friends rejoice both far and near,
How can I keep from singing?

In prison cell and dungeon vile
Our thoughts to them are winging.
When friends by shame are undefiled,
How can I keep from singing?
