Salutation

Hymn of Praise – The God of Abraham Praise #66

Prayer of Confession: O Lord, who holds the destiny of nations in Your hands, You called Abram with a word of promise. So, O Lord, You call us today with Your word of promise to become Your faithful disciples. But we are reluctant to follow. We want to know what lies ahead and plan accordingly. We want to exercise control of the direction and pace our life follows. And we certainly don't want to be like Abram and strike out for some unknown destination. Lord, our faith is weak and timid in comparison to that of Abram, to Jesus, or to the apostles. Forgive us, Lord, for our lack of faith and faithfulness. Renew Your Spirit within us so that we feel inspired and we become inspirational. Empower us to be more like the saints of old so that Your body, the Church, might grow and once again influence others to follow in Your footsteps. In the Spirit and name of Christ we pray. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon: Rejoice, for God gives life to the dead and calls into existence possibilities we could not imagine. Christ died for our sins and rose to new life that we might be justified. Let us explore together what that means in the assurance that God is willing and able to fulfill all the promises made to us. God takes us by the hand and lifts us up to abundant life.
